

MEMBERSHIP FORM:

LDHS is actively campaigning for archaeological artifacts, found within the parishes of Longstanton and Oakington, to be displayed in a local museum. We are lobbying for the establishment of a museum in the former Officer's Mess building, Rampton Road, Longstanton. If you would like to support this campaign, and our other heritage protection work, please join LDHS today. Please complete this form and send it to: LDHS, c/o The Manor, Woodside, Longstanton, Cambs. CB24 3BU

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION AND APPLICATION FORM

CAMPAGNING FOR LOCAL ARTIFACTS TO BE DISPLAYED IN A LOCAL MUSEUM
Please support our work by joining today.

Protecting and Promoting the Heritage of Longstanton & District

Benefits of membership:

- Annual newsletter from the Society.
- Advance notice of events, exhibitions, and any other LDHS events.
- Chance to meet like minded people.
- Doing something positive to help protect and promote the heritage of the villages of Longstanton, Oakington & Westwick and RAF Oakington (Northstowe).

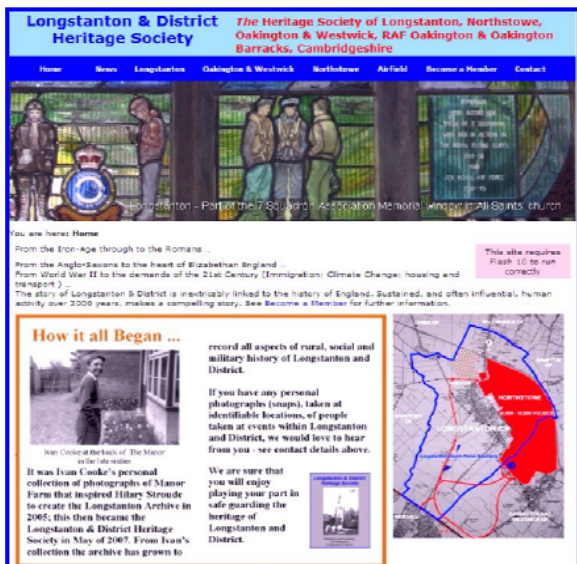

Our Role:

LDHS aims to protect the heritage of Longstanton and District by the creation of an archival record. Information will be made accessible to the public and local schools as far as is reasonably possible. Heritage will be promoted by providing information sheets and articles, as well as by encouraging the active use of historical buildings. Talks will be arranged so that people may learn more about the area. LDHS is also committed to establishing a local museum where our archives, and local archaeological finds, can be publicly displayed. For further information contact:

LDHS, The Manor, Woodside, Longstanton, Cambs.

From the Iron-Age through to the Romans.
From the Anglo-Saxons to the heart of Elizabethan England.
From World War II to the demands of the 21st Century (Immigration, Climate Change, housing and transport) ...
The story of Longstanton & District is inextricably linked to the history of England. Sustained, and often influential, human activity, over 2000 years, makes a compelling story. See Become a Member for further information.

How it all Began ...

record all aspects of rural, social and military history of Longstanton and District.

If you have any personal photographs (snaps), taken at identifiable locations, of people taken at events within Longstanton and District, we would love to hear from you - see contact details above.

www.ldhs.org

Find out 'How it all Began'. Get a feel for the numerous pages that we will cover in some depth.

Subjects range from the history of local agriculture, the railway, the airfield and our churches.

It's by no means complete, but we continue to add to the site with your help. Hopefully you find enough of interest to want to return.

Please help us by contributing your own memories, photos or other information to the archive.

LDHS is Affiliated to the Cambridge Antiquarian Society:

This has opened up a whole new range of benefits for its members. These include:

- 1) Access to CAS lectures and conferences.
- 2) Access to CAS Collections including University Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology and the Department of Archaeology Haddon Library.

Please see the website for further information.

AGM:

The Annual General Meeting will take place in September each year, prior to and on the same evening as the talk for that month. More information will be distributed nearer the time.

Please join LDHS today and help protect the heritage of Longstanton & District. Each individual member does make a difference.
