Longstanton & District Heritage Society

A COMMUNITY LED ORGANISATION
SUPPORTING THE HERITAGE OF LONGSTANTON, OAKINGTON
And NORTHSTOWE

Membership Form
2026 - 2027

- Your support will help to safeguard OUR SHARED HERITAGE, held within the LDHS Archives, for our local communities
- Your support will help with our continued efforts to ensure that the Northstowe Phase 2 planning commitment for the display and storage of the LDHS Archives is met
- Your support enables the Heritage Society to represent heritage issues for Northstowe, Longstanton and Oakington, as part of the important council led Heritage Steering Group
- Your support enables the Society to promote and protect our shared heritage and to ensure that the educational and cultural benefits of our heritage can be placed at the heart of our communities
- Your membership will enable the Society to promote and support the work of other local heritage societies, including their heritage talks and events

Our Role:

The Heritage Society's continued aim is to protect and promote the shared heritage of Longstanton, Northstowe, and Oakington and Westwick. Information will be made accessible to the public as far as is reasonably possible, but assistance is needed from across our communities to achieve the best results. Heritage and history talks from the wider local area and the SW Fen Edge will also be promoted in a variety of ways and the active use of local historic buildings will be encouraged. LDHS remains committed to working with a range of partners to ensure our archives and artefacts can be displayed locally and are accessible to the communities of Longstanton, Oakington, Northstowe and the wider SW Fen Edge.

Longstanton Station

Since its launch on 11 May 2007, the Heritage Society has built the LDHS Archives with contributions from long-standing village residents, former RAF Oakington and Oakington Barracks personnel, and individuals around the world whose families have ties to Longstanton, Oakington, Westwick or the airfield.

We continue to work with the council led Heritage Steering Group which aims to deliver a Northstowe Heritage Strategy. We hope this Strategy will deliver the display and storage

LDHS is Affiliated to the Cambridge Antiquarian Society:

Benefits for LDHS members include:

- 1) Access to CAS lectures and conferences.
- 2) Access to CAS Collections including University Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology and the Department of Archaeology Haddon Library.

The Airfield Research Group and the Swavesey and District History Society are both affiliated societies of LDHS. Please see the respective websites for further information on these Societies.

AGM: The Annual General Meeting will normally take place between September and December each year. More information will be distributed to members nearer the time .

THE HERITAGE SOCIETY NEEDS YOU!

It is now 19 years since LDHS was founded in May 2007, to help safeguard the heritage of Longstanton, Oakington Airfield and the village of Oakington, at a time when plans for the new town of Northstowe were beginning to take shape. Since then, we have secured Grade II listed status for the circular 'Oakington' pillboxes, helped protect the Longstanton paddocks within Northstowe, and built a significant historical archive - among other achievements. To continue this important work, we now need new members and volunteers to join us.
